From venture capital and private equity, to tax and debt finance for renewable energy projects to institutional investors looking for reliable long term returns- the forum welcomes renewable energy companies and investors alike to examine new investment avenues and forge new partnerships.

Key topics to be addressed will include:

- Renewable energy markets available in West Africa;
- Strategic and institutional investment available to the renewable energy market;
- Federal and state funding available and how to get it;
- Private equity and expansion capital;
- Early stage Venture Capital investment;
- Where and how to obtain tax equity investment;
- Balancing project finance with tax equity, debts, and other methods.
